Chapel Services

Michaelmas Term 2018

St John's College Chapel

Since the early thirteenth century the site of St John's College has had a place of Christian worship. The original Chapel, whose ruins may still be viewed in First Court, belonged to a hospital for the poor and infirm and was retained when the College was founded in 1511. Our present Chapel, built in 1869 by Sir George Gilbert Scott, continues this faithful offering of prayer with regular services enriched by the College's outstanding choral tradition.

Members of the public are welcome at all Choral Services, printed in BOLD TYPE in this list.

Surplices are provided in the Chapel, and are worn by members of the College on Sundays, at Evensong on Saturdays, and on other holy days as marked in this list with the letter S.

Choral Evensong

Our service of Evensong follows that set down in the Church of England's Book of Common Prayer in 1662. The service can be followed on the cream cards in the stalls. On Tuesdays to Sundays Evensong is sung by the College Choir of men and boys, who study either at the College or at the College School. On Mondays Evensong is sung by the College's mixed-voice choir, St John's Voices. The words of the psalm appointed for the day and sung by the Choir may be found in the Book of Common Prayer (usually red). Please join in singing the hymns, usually found in the green New English Hymnal.

In accordance with the spirit of the Book of Common Prayer a portion of the Morning Psalms are sung during the first half of term and a portion of the Evening Psalms during the second half. Our readings follow the Common Worship Additional Weekday Lectionary.

Our Sunday sermon series this term is 'Thinking Allowed : Christian Engagement in Public Debates'. Further information about the guest speakers may be found on the Chapel website:

www.job.cam.ac.uk/chapel-choir/sermons

Sung Eucharist

The service may be followed in the green Sung Eucharist booklets. Please join in all words marked in bold. Our readings are printed on a separate white sheet, which may be collected from the entrance to the Chapel. Hymns are found in the green hymn book in the stalls.

The Chapel is part of the Church of England, within the world-wide Anglican Communion, and welcomes all Christians who are communicant members of their own church to receive Communion with us.

Listen Online

A Chapel service is webcast on a weekly basis throughout the year. Webcast services are available from midday on Tuesdays. You can listen online at:

The clergy are always glad to arrange to see members of the College.

The Chapel Clerk can be contacted by telephone on 01223 338676 or by e-mail at chapel@joh.cam.ac.uk

Further details of the Chapel and Choir are available on the College website www.joh.cam.ac.uk & www.sjcchoir.co.uk

The Chapel is fitted with a hearing induction loop for those who are hearing-impaired. Simply switch your hearing aid to the T position.

Our presence at services is a prayer; please respect the traditions of the Chapel and of all those who worship with you. If you would like to know more about the Christian faith or the Church of England, please speak to one of the clergy.

Please do not use cameras, tape recorders or videos in the Chapel.

Please do not bring food and drink into the Chapel.

The work of the Chapel is entirely supported by the College and no collections are taken during services. However, the student Chapel Committee supports a number of charities each term and alms boxes are provided for donations on the table by the Chapel gates; please give generously.

** This work was commissioned for the College Choir last term.

*** Two works in this service are by Michael Finnissy, the College's Composer in Residence. The Cantata and Commentary are performed this evening for the first time. They are part of a projected cycle of nine works, to be completed in the Easter Term 2019. The collaboration has been made possible by the College Annual Fund and the Herbert Howells Organ Music Fund. Finnissy's Cantata is a response to Bach's Cantata 96, which was performed last Saturday.
